

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

KIRK ORMAND DAVIS,

Defendant.

Case Nos. 2:12-cr-373-GMN-VCF 2:13-cr-55-GMN-VCF

ORDER

These matters came before the court on October 4, 2023, for a status check regarding the revocation hearings. ECF No. 138 in Case No. 2:12-cr-373-GMN-VCF and ECF No. 124 in Case No. 2:13-cr-55-GMN-VCF. Soon after the start of the hearing, Davis began disruptive outbursts, talking over his counsel and the Court, cursing the various parties in the courtroom. When Davis proved unwilling to respond to the Court's admonishments, the Court ordered Davis removed to a holding cell where he could listen to the proceedings. The United States renewed a previous motion for a competency evaluation pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4241 based on the record in these matters. Counsel for Davis did not oppose the motion, noting that during a meeting with Davis earlier that day, Davis demonstrated disordered thoughts to an extent that he appeared to be unable to assist in his own defense.

Based upon the record in these matters, the Court's observations of Davis during the October 4 hearing, Davis' conduct reported in the petitions and addenda, Davis' previously documented mental health conditions, and the reports of the parties, the Court finds "there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant may presently be suffering from a mental disease or defect rendering him mentally incompetent to the extent that he is unable to understand the nature and consequences of the proceedings against him or to assist properly in his defense." 18 U.S.C. § 4241; see United States v. Pederson, 784 F.2d 1462, 1464–65 (9th Cir. 1986). The Court both grants the United States' motion and sua sponte orders a hearing to determine the mental competency of Mr. Davis.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that:

A psychiatric or psychological examination of Mr. Kirk Ormand Davis shall be conducted, and a psychiatric or psychological report be filed with the court, pursuant to the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 4247(b) and (c);

Mr. Davis is committed to the custody of the Attorney General for placement in a suitable facility for a reasonable period, not to exceed 30 days. 18 U.S.C. § 4247(b). Unless impracticable, the psychiatric or psychological examination shall be conducted in the suitable facility closest to the court. Id. The director of the facility may apply for a reasonable extension, but not to exceed 15 days, upon a showing of good cause that the additional time is necessary to observe and evaluate the defendant. Id.
